

Wednesday, 28 March 2007
Auditorium Anna Nussbaum
IP-9 Workshop

-

“Prior Informed Consent to Patent Applications by Donors of Human Genetic Material”

13.30-13.45	Welcome &amp; introduction
13.45-14.05	Prof. Dr. Denis Monard , (Friedrich Miescher Institute for Biomedical Research)  Identification of new targets through analysis of human genetic material and steps to patentable inventions
14.05-14.20	Debate & questions to Denis Monard
14.20-14.30	François Meienberg , (Declaration of Berne)  Genetic resources of indigenous communities and patentable inventions
14.30-14.40	Debate & questions to François Meienberg
14.40-15.00	Jerzy Koopman , LL.M., (University of Utrecht)  PIC in patent law: On the asymmetries between international legal regimes
15.00-15.20	Debate & questions to Jerzy Koopman
15.20-15.40	Coffee break

15.40-16.10	Prof. Dr. Markus Schefer, (University of Basel) Constitutional &amp; Human Rights as Regards Prior Informed Consent of Human Donors
16.10-16.30	Debate &amp; questions to Markus Schefer
16.30-17.00	Anthony Taubman (WIPO; United Nations Bioethics Committee) Informed consent, the human genome and the patent system in the framework of bioethics and human rights
17.00-17.20	Debate &amp; questions to Anthony Taubman
17.20-17.35	Michelangelo Temmerman, LL.M., (World Trade Institute) Prior informed consent in patent law: overview &amp; options
17.35-17.45	Debate &amp; questions to Michelangelo Temmerman
17.45-18.00	Conclusions and goodbye
18.30-....	Dinner @ Seidenhof